THE MODESTO BEE, THE MODESTO JUNIOR COLLEGE, AND NOVERUS, co-sponsored a community wide estate planning conference, "Building Blocks of Estate Planning."

Modesto, California. – NOVERUS, a leading source for personal financial management systems and tools, along with The Modesto Bee (A McClatchy Paper) and the Modesto Junior College (The oldest Junior College in California), co-sponsored a community wide estate planning conference, "Building Blocks of Estate Planning."

The purpose of conference was to provide a community service, to the greater Modesto community, through an in-depth program on one of the most under addressed areas of personal financial management – estate planning. Mr. Sabuco, the CEO of Noverus and a Syndicated columnist served as the Moderator of this two and half program. He was joined by panelists that include attorney Judy Jensen, enrolled agent Gary McKinsey, CFP® Terry Swehla, Donna Bradley, and Trust Officer Mark Kenny.

Noverus produced and provided all attendees with a copy of their Estate Planning Organizer – "Building Blocks of Estate Planning."

Noverus is a leading financial publishing, information technology, and services company dedicated to providing the information and advice people need to organize, simplify, and strengthen the management of their personal finances.
